TEACH FOR CANADA

STUDENT AMBASSADOR APPLICATION

Teach For Canada is a non-profit organization collaborating with First Nations in northern Ontario to recruit, prepare, and support teachers.

Our Student Ambassadors are volunteers who are critical to our mission. They are current Bachelor of Education or Master of Education students who represent the next generation of teachers, and they support our on-campus teacher recruitment initiatives.

The Student Ambassador Position:

We are looking for passionate education students—either Bachelor or Masters—from across Canada to help contribute to making education more equitable. As a Student Ambassador, you will join our team of young Canadian leaders and spearhead Teach For Canada initiatives on your campus, including:

- Amplifying First Nations' calls for committed educators in the North
- Leading Teach For Canada campus awareness initiatives on educational inequities and the strength of northern First Nation communities
- Designing communication and recruitment strategies to inspire community-focused B.Ed. candidates to apply to join Teach For Canada's 2018 cohort of teachers
- Identifying and connecting with strong prospective applicants who want to make a difference
- Serving as your university's on-campus resource and advisor to Teach For Canada

All Student Ambassadors will convene in Toronto in mid-October for the Student Ambassador Forum where they will hear from First Nations' community partners, discuss awareness-raising strategies, and collaborate on Teach For Canada's broader goals.

We are excited to exchange, share, and grow with each Student Ambassador as we strive to provide more opportunities to students in northern First Nations communities.
